Workshop on tobacco control

GUWAHATI, DEC. 1: Consumer Voice, Delhi and Consumers’ Legal Protection Forum, Assam working on tobacco control issues in the state of Assam, recently organised a state-level workshop on tobacco control at Hotel Ambarish Grand Residency, Paltan Bazar, here, stated a press release.

The purpose of the event was sensitisation of stakeholder on tobacco control measures, especially to protect young generation from tobacco menace. Amarjeet Singh Panghal, adviser (legal and projects), Consumer Voice, shared key findings of a recent study conducted about tobacco vendors in 3 cities in state of Assam.

He said, “The density of tobacco vendors is too high in both commercial and residential areas and there is no record available of tobacco vendors. We found 324 tobacco vendors in 6 wards/areas of 3 cities of Assam (Guwahati, Jorhat & Dibrugarh). Tobacco vendors are violating COTPA, 2003. Mandatory warning display board was not found at 67% tobacco point of sale. Tobacco products are displayed openly, amounting to advertisements at every point of sale. Tobacco advertisements were found at 50% point of sale. Sale of loose cigarettes is rampant (around 33%), which frustrate purpose of pictorial warning at package. 86% tobacco vendors were found selling candy, chips etc. the products meant for and to attract children/youth to tobacco shops.”

He suggested developing a mechanism of tobacco vendor licensing in Assam by Municipalities to control
