Stakeholders Consultation on Strengthening Road Safety in the State of Assam

Cox’s Bazar, Sept 5: Consumer VOICE, the leading consumer protection organization working to promote road safety, organized a stakeholders workshop at Hotel Aarong Arshiya, Gauhati today. The main objective of the meeting was to discuss the need for strengthening the road safety measures in Assam. The workshop was attended by representatives from various government and non-government organizations working in the field of road safety.

Consumer VOICE, COO, Ashish Verma, said, “The workshop was an opportunity to bring together stakeholders from various sectors to discuss the road safety challenges in Assam and to identify potential solutions.”

The workshop began with a presentation by Consumer VOICE on the current road safety situation in Assam. The organization highlighted the need for stronger enforcement of traffic rules and regulations, as well as the importance of public awareness campaigns to promote road safety.

Representatives from the Assam State Transport Corporation (ASTC) and the Assam State Road Transport Corporation (ASRTC) shared their experiences and challenges in implementing road safety measures. They emphasized the need for improved infrastructure, including better signage and markings, to improve road safety.

The workshop also included a roundtable discussion where stakeholders from various sectors, including road transport operators, academic institutions, and civil society organizations, shared their views and suggestions on how to improve road safety in Assam.

Ashish Verma concluded the workshop by thanking all the stakeholders for their participation and emphasizing the importance of collaboration in addressing the road safety challenges in Assam.

The workshop was organized in collaboration with the Assam Road Safety Board (ARSB) and the Assam State Transport Corporation (ASTC). Consumer VOICE is committed to working with the government and other stakeholders to improve road safety in Assam.

Consumer bodies urge Assam to adopt new MVA rules

GUAHATI, SEPT 6: Consumer Legal Protection Forum and Consumer Voice, New Delhi — consumer protection organizations working to promote road safety — organized a stakeholder workshop at hotel Aarjan Allitya, Guwahati on Friday. The main objective of the workshop was to strengthen the road safety aspects of MVA 2019. Recently the Motor Vehicles Amendment Act 2019 has been passed with an aim to make Indian roads safer, reduce corruption and use technology to overhaul the country’s transportation system. The next step is to frame the Motor Vehicle Rules by Central and State governments to implement the amended law for improving road safety. The consultation mainly focused on the six vital pillars of road safety which are seen as the best global practice to reduce road casualties. The next step is to adopt the GMVR in the state / UT agenda for immediate implementation to enhance road safety. Assam has taken lead in efforts to strengthen road safety and it’s high time to have a consultation process with the concerned stakeholders to make the necessary legislative framework within the shortest possible time.

Pranabita Sarkar, DCP (Traffic), Commissionerate of Police, Guwahati said that in the last six months itself in Assam around 2,350 accidents occurred in which 1,980 people were injured and 928 lost their lives.
